The Horseshoe Bay terminal is north of Vancouver and this ferry route takes just under 2 hours while the Tsawwassen terminal is south of the city, closer to the USA border and it takes just a little over 2 hours. The Horseshoe Bay ferry arrives at the Departure Bay terminal in Nanaimo while the Tsawwassen ferry arrives at the Duke Point terminal just about 15 minutes south of the city.

Once in Nanaimo: Your overall travel time from Nanaimo to the Inn will range from 2.5 - 3 hours.

- Travel north on Highway 19 for 43 km (26 miles),
- Take Exit 60 onto Highway 4 (also known as the Pacific Rim Highway) heading west for 156 km (97 miles).

The home stretch

- Once on Highway 4, you will drive through spectacular Cathedral Grove, historic Port Alberni (drive straight downhill and turn right at the junction), and around beautiful Sproat and Kennedy Lakes. Travel westward until you come to the junction between Tofino and Ucluelet.
- Turn right at the Tofino/Ucluelet junction and drive north toward Tofino for 28 km (17 miles). Do not turn at the sign for the Wickaninnish Centre or Wick Road, but continue through the Pacific Rim National Park Reserve towards Tofino.
- Once you pass the Clayoquot Orca Lodge, take the first left turn at the Wickaninnish Inn sign onto Lynn Road.
- Approximately 250 yards down Lynn Road, take the right fork onto Osprey Lane and continue for 300 yards until you reach the Inn. The first building to come into view on your left is Wickaninnish-On-the-Beach, followed by Wickaninnish-At-the-Pointe. Your confirmation will show which building houses your guestroom.

We wish you safe travels, and look forward to welcoming you!
